

Kevin Artl Bio

Kevin Artl is the President and CEO of the American Council of Engineering Companies of Illinois (ACEC-IL) where he represents and advocates for over 200 engineering and affiliate companies representing over 11,000 employees. Prior to his current role at ACEC-IL, Artl served as Chief Operating Officer of the Illinois Tollway where he helped manage and execute the Tollway's $14 billion Move Illinois Capital Program. As the Tollway's COO, Artl Coordinated with industry leaders on Tollway policy and capital plans, emerging technologies and best business practices.

In addition to his work at the Illinois Tollway, Artl served in senior roles for over 15 years in both the United States Senate and Illinois General Assembly. Artl served as State Director for former United States Senator Mark Kirk and as Director of Communications and later as the Director of Policy for former Illinois House Minority Leader Tom Cross. Prior to his work in government, Artl served as Director of Government Affairs for Amtrak.